MOVE ON

This website is a collection of data from my time during World's Greatest Internship from October 2018 through March 2019. It is an outlet for self-reflection and self-analysis, a tool to understand how I changed over time.

October came and went in a flash, but what a great way to begin. These types of opportunities just don't exist within the creative industry and it takes a really special group of people to have a wild idea and actually see it through. Between travel and work, the month
